SOCIAL NOTES

Come and give 2007 a Gold Medal Start!

Our first social event for the year will be the Surrey Park Olympic Games 2007 to be held at the clubrooms from 7.30pm on Saturday 19 May. The $5.00 entry includes finger food. Featuring – “Bat the Rat”, “Snowball Eating”, “The Broom” and the return of the “GUZUNDA”. If you’re not sure about these then come along and be amazed!!!! Or why not compete?? No training necessary.

See Greg, Phil, China, Jonny Hill or Higgysy or any of our Committee.

The President’s Lunch is scheduled for Saturday 21 July.

Keep an eye on the web site for updates.

A GREAT START TO 2007

Yes we have had a great start to 2007 with every single team (senior, junior and women) winning their first round match (in fact the girls have notched up 4 consecutive wins already). Let’s keep up the good work and have a GREAT season.

SUB'S ARE NOW DUE

You’ll all be pleased to know that sub’s will not be rising this year.

AUSTRALIAN UNDER 19 TEAM

As advised in the last newsletter we had a bunch of guys trying out for the Australian under 19 team.

CONGRATULATIONS TO!!

- Luke Andrewartha
- Jarrod Brown
- Gene Kehoe
- Josh O'Neill
- Phil Skiller Jnr
- Rowan Swanson-Hill
- Michael Todor

for being successful in making the Victorian Under 19 Team to play in Perth in July!

Also, congratulations to our very own Sean Handley for his appointment as Coach.

It's great to see Surrey again so well represented in a State side.

GOOD LUCK!!

JUNIOR PLAYERS NEEDED

To all juniors – please invite some friends down to play at Surrey. We would still like more junior players at all levels but especially under 12's.

DONATIONS OF OLD OR UNWANTED GEAR

ALL GRADES - Please support your junior team members with your donations of old or unwanted equipment, anything will do - gloves, sticks, heads, helmets, and pads.

We can use old poles, bent or twisted, old sticks that the mesh or strings can be recycled. Also please return any unused red shorts and playing tops that may be at the back of your drawer.

Goods may be left at the club on training nights with David Spreadborough
